AMID THE RUINS.

English and American Marines Patrolling European Districts to Keep Order.

The Egyptian Soldiers Rob, Plunder and Fire the City Before Departing.

Arabi Pasha Ordered His Troops to Kill the Khedive—His Treachery.

Fears That the Forts are Undermined—A Marine's Daring Deed.

Effects of the Bombardment. (By Cable to the Sentinel.) ALEXANDRIA, July 15.—The bombardment of Tuesday almost exterminated the Egyptian corps of artillerymen, which was the best branch of the army.

A GALLANT DEED. In the course of Tuesday's fight a gunner on board the Alexandria performed a gallant deed. A lighted shell fell upon the main deck. The gunner picked it up and immersed the burning fuse in a bucket of water. This is described as a wonderful piece of devotion, more gallant than anything of the sort ever before chronicled. The gunner will be recommended for the Victoria Cross.

THE FIRE UNDER CONTROL. The fire is not spreading. The looting has been stopped. A force of Germans have landed to protect the hospital, and a party of Americans to establish a consular office. The iron clad Minatour has arrived.

RESTORING ORDER. It is now possible to walk the streets without escort. The cafes and shops are reopening and confidence is generally reviving. Admiral Seymour is organizing the police force as fast as possible and has occupied the gates and two forts.

ATROCIOUS WORK OF THE SOLDIERS. Thirteen hundred Christian refugees were saved in the Captive church during the massacre. The fires in town were directly instigated by the principal supporters of Arabi Pasha, if not himself. After the looting commenced the soldiers attacked the original plunderers and robbed them of their prey. Arabi Pasha, during the engagement, was at Fort Napoleon, which neither fired nor received a shot. After the firing had ceased he rode through the town accompanied by Mohammed Lami and other ministers. Subsequently a party of soldiers deliberately set fire to the French consulate. Another party of soldiers proceeded in the same systematic manner to set fire to the other side of the great square. The whole district is so ruined that even the street openings are indistinguishable.

THE CARNAGE. An officer, just returned from the city, reports the scene of carnage on shore appalling. The town for some hours after the troops left was a veritable pandemonium. There is a suspicion that the forts are undermined, and they will be carefully examined before any large bodies of troops are allowed to enter them. About it is as yet untouched. A thousand men are known to be entrenched there.

THE KHEDIVES ESCAPE. After the bombardment Arabi Pasha actually told the men to kill the khedive. The soldiers, however, hearing the English approaching, deserted their posts everywhere.

HEAVY EXPLOSIONS. OFF ALEXANDRIA, July 15.—8 p.m.—There have been three heavy explosions on shore since noon.

News From England. (By Cable to the Sentinel.) LONDON, July 15.—It is stated that the Duke of Connaught will take command of a brigade of guards in Egypt. The house hold cavalry do not take heavy kits for active service. TOO LATE FOR TURKISH INTERVIEW. ENGLAND. The Daily News believes there is a growing feeling among the powers that the time for Turkish intervention is past, and that the work will be sufficiently done alone by English and French cooperation within the next two days. France has shown an increasing disposition to undertake a joint occupation, if invited to do so by the powers.

AMERICAN MARINES AT ALEXANDRIA. In the commons, to-day, Mr. Dilke, under foreign secretary, read a telegram stating that American marines were assisting in patrolling the streets of Alexandria.

ARABI PASHA'S POSITION. In the commons Sir Charles Dilke said the government had no information as to Arabi Pasha's position.

Turkey's Attitude. (By Cable to the Sentinel.) CONSTANTINOPLE, July 15.—All the ambassadors have received instructions that conference was to convene Saturday morning and in the afternoon recommend the Porte to intervene in Egypt.

Beaten to Death. (By Telegram to the Sentinel.) OLARNDON, Ark., July 15.—James Green (colored) was beaten to death by John Rieberg, who escaped. He is the same man who recently committed the murder at Friar's Point, Miss.

Stabbed By Ruffians. (By Telegram to the Sentinel.) OREGON, July 15.—William Todd, of Pittsburg, a steamboat man, was fallen upon this forenoon by inmates of a gambling house on Longworth street, and stabbed in the back, groin and side. The assailants escaped.

Victims of the Fallen Building. (By Telegram to the Sentinel.) ST. LOUIS, July 15.—A Little Rock special says that thirty bodies have been recovered from the ruins of the crumbled building at Texarkana. The funerals of the victims to-day were attended by great crowds. The work of search for the missing is going on. Three bodies taken out were burned to a crisp. Fifteen persons are still missing and are supposed to be under the ruins.

A Pretty Pattern Cutter's Sickness.

Yesterday, Township Trustee Gaffney, was called to 36 Baker street, where a young lady was said to be sick, and was in urgent need of removal to the hospital. Going to the house, he found Miss Belle Orme, a pretty young lady, lying on a bed, apparently not suffering much agony. He questioned her suspiciously as to her ailment, but received no satisfactory reply. He told her she would have to be examined by a physician before he would consent to her removal to the hospital at the township expense. This the fair and prostrate maiden indignantly repudiated, and said she didn't want to go to the hospital. The landlady, Mrs. Northrup, then informed the patient and her sister Laura, who has also been stopping at the house, that she could no longer keep them, as expenses were somewhat in excess of receipts. A lively war of words ensued, in the midst of which the modest trustee retired. This morning a SENTINEL reporter called at the house and was informed that during the night, or early in the morning, the Misses Orme left the house, she knew not whither. The young ladies had from Valparaiso, and since their arrival in this city, July 3, they have gained a livelihood by cutting and selling patterns. They also canvassed for a patent sewing machine treadle, sold by their landlady, Mrs. Northrup. The young lady referred to was taken sick last Monday, but she succeeded in keeping the nature of her ailment from her female companions. They are thought to be in the city still.

Arrest of the Safe Crackers. This time, the Monroeville burglars are in limbo. Last night at Lima, Ohio, two fellows giving the names of Powell and Howard were arrested for the Monroeville burglaries. Powell was brought to Monroeville and on his person was found a ring taken from Heller's safe. He is having his preliminary examination this afternoon. Howard refused to come without a requisition which will be secured.

RELIGIOUS.

Rev. G. I. Keirn, of the Universalist church, will preach to-morrow morning on "Our Relation to Christ." No evening services.

Services at Trinity church at 10:30 a. m. Rev. E. H. Dunnington, Huntington, Ind., will officiate and preach. All cordially invited.

LOCAL LINES.

Mr. and Mrs. George W. Leut will entertain a party of friends this evening at their apartments in the Foster block.

An indictment was returned by the grand jury against Jacob Roler for disturbing a religious meeting. He has not yet been arrested.

Jay Phillips had nerve. An ingrowing nail was so painful this morning that, seizing a sharp knife, he sliced off fully one-half of one of his big toes.

The Grand Rapids club returned home last night and are playing the Stars of Detroit this afternoon. The Grand Rapids club appear in their new uniforms.

The indications for the lower lake region are warmer and fair weather, followed by increasing cloudiness and light rains, winds mostly southerly and stationary or lower pressure.

Deputy Marshal Limecooly arrested two boys for indulging in the perilous pastime of jumping on Pittsburg passenger train No. 1 when in motion. Their fate should warn other venturesome kids.

The United States court adjourned to-day. The jury returned a verdict for plaintiffs in the case of Morgan, Nichols et al. vs. the Canal Company. This vests the title to the disputed property in Mr. H. H. Robinson.

This afternoon, Deputy Marshal Limecooly arrested two boys named Henry Huffer and Harry Carpenter, charged with stealing scrap iron from the Murray foundry, which they sold to Diehl, the junk man. They are in the calaboose.

John Evans has filed an affidavit against Annie Fitzgerald for assault. This is the second chapter of an after breakfast row at a hotel. Miss Fitzgerald is a waitress, and Justice Ryan's office is thronged with sympathetic dining room girls.

Arrangements are being made to have the soldiers' reunion at the same time as the Northern Indiana fair. Gen. U. S. Grant and W. S. Hancock will be invited and a strong effort will be made by personal friends of the distinguished gentlemen to induce their attendance.

*Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound ranks first as a curative Agent in all complaints peculiar to women. Cures Kidney troubles of either sex.

John Draker's Challenge Accepted.

I will match "Belmont Prince" against John Draker's "Frank Forrester" for two hundred dollars ($200) a side, with one hundred dollars ($100) forfeit, to be put up in the hands of W. W. Rockhill, where one hundred dollars ($100) my side can now be found, the balance to be put up before 8 o'clock the night before the race. The race to be trotted under the National Trotting association rules; mile heats, best three in five, to harness. Race to be trotted over the track of the Northern Indiana Fair association, of Fort Wayne, Ind., Thursday, August 17, 1882; good day and track. If, owing to bad weather, the race cannot be trotted August 17, it shall be postponed until the next good day and track. Gate money to go to the winning horse of the station trot. Money to be placed in the hands of W. W. Rockhill on or before Wednesday next, July 19, 1882.

P. S.—I will also match one of "Belmont Prince's" four year old colts against any one of "Frank Forrester's" colts of the same age for fifty dollars ($50) a side, with ten dollars ($10) forfeit, to be put in the hands of W. W. Rockhill, where forfeit money can now be found. Race to be trotted on same day and same rules to govern as above. Best two in three to harness.

In connection with the war in Egypt and the bombardment of the city of Alexandria, a gentleman this city who has lately been abroad and spent some time at that point mentions a most interesting incident.
The usual mode of travel in this country being on donkeys, there are numerous little swarthy lads who hire the long eared beasts, and trot presidently behind their "fara," urging up the comfortable and easy going animals with a convenient stick.
Among them, who are rather victi-ous as a class, the gentleman selected a forlorn little boy with big, dark eyes and a face of deep sadness. Yusuf was extremely grateful for every kindness, and his face would brighten when the gentleman came out of his hotel and engaged him for the day.
The poorer class are only known in tin coffs, a sort of which could be bought with a silver dollar, and upon the day of his departure the gentleman, after the farewell was spoken, gave the little fellow a gold dollar and a good night kiss.

rious and original decorations. One designed and now nearly finished by a prominent lady of this city is in three panels representing: the seasons, the first being violets and early spring flowers, the second the blue skies of June with golden lilies, sweet peas, clover and roses, while the third was colored like the dull skies of November with a medley of scarlet, maple leaves, red-rose leaves, asters, yellow daisies and sprays of carolina flowers. Another already designed, which is an order, shows a vine of trumpet flowers with its long scarlet bells which the humming bird loves so well. The vine seems actually to clamber from one panel to the other as it would were it really growing over the picture.

A lady who has just returned from Europe suggested to a friend to introduce a novelty at a recent dinner party when desert was served. A platoon of mice was to be placed upon the table in which stood small earthenware flower pots. It was to be so arranged that a flower pot was before each guest, on which were piled large tubular strawberries, green glass plates to eat the fruit from, and unique and tiny brass pitchers. Each place presented a most charming and novel effect.

SATURDAY, JULY 1, 1911
THE CITY.

Superintendent Law is in Chicago. The Pittsburg pay car will be here Monday.

The long haired fakirs continue to infest the city.

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Maler returned from Detroit this afternoon.

Supt. M. D. Woodford, of the Jackson, and daughter are at the Aveline.

Rev. Mr. Croley's grove meeting at Pleasant Lake is one week from tomorrow.

The Wabash company have now a double track through the city which greatly facilitates business.

Louis Sausser, the lucky jeweler who drew $15,000 in the lottery, has gone to Buffalo, N. Y., to live.

One week from to-day there will be a meeting of the Allen county democratic central committee at the circuit court room.

Graham Butler, of the Pittsburg machine shop, who has been on a visit to his home at Altoona, is expected home to-night.

The damage suit of Levi Diller vs. the Grand Rapids road is on trial in the superior court. Superintendent O'Rourke is in constant attendance.

The Wabash road will sell round trip tickets for $68 to the national Mining and Industrial Exposition which opens at Denver, Col., August 1, and closes September 30.

The stock train on the Wabash is doing a paying business. It brought into the city last night twelve car loads of stock from St. Louis, which were transferred to the Pittsburg.

W. W. Michaels, of Bourbon, will in all probability be the purchaser of the late Mr. Foster's paper. He thinks of changing the sheet into a two cent democratic morning paper.

Miss Frank Gronauer, of our city, was married to D. R. Fenderson in Omaha, July 8, by Rev. J. W. Stewart, pastor of the First M. E. church. Some costly presents were received by the bride and groom.

Jerusha Lee, an elderly female, was arrested last night by Officer Wahrenberg for drunkenness. The old woman is the mother of young children, and the mayor leniently told her to go and budge no more.

The Columbia City Commercial says it will take Col. I. B. McDonald into the republican party on probation. We doubt very much if the colonel desires to enter the republican party under any circumstances.

The greenbackers meet in convention July 22, to put in nomination a full ticket. It is believed that there will be enough offices so that each man in the room can have a nomination. J. M. Welch is chairman.

Joe Dando has offered $900 for Neeley's skating rink. The proposition was not accepted, as Mr. Neeley holds his property at $1,000. Mr. Dando now runs three skating rinks in the west. He resides at Dayton, Ohio.

Miss Minnie McConnell died at the residence of her parents, No. 30 West Main street, this morning at 11 o'clock. The funeral will take place from the house on Monday morning, at 10 o'clock. Services will be held at the Cathedral.

Rumors are current of probable changes in the management of the Wabash railway. It is said by one set of gossipers that Jay Gould will relinquish the presidency of the Wabash, and that Captain R. S. Hayes will be elected in his place.

Rev. W. H. McFarland entertained several city clergymen at dinner yesterday at the Aveline. They were invited to meet the Rev. Sylvester F. Scovel, D. D., a distinguished Presbyterian divine, of Pittsburg, who was in the city en route to Rome City.

Spencer Democrat: "Hon. Allen Zollars, of Fort Wayne, will be before the state convention as candidate for judge of the supreme court in place of Judge Worden, who will not be a candidate. Mr. Zollars is a fine gentleman, a staunch democrat, well qualified and entirely worthy."

Manager Aronson, of the Golden Eagle baseball club, entertained the club last night at his residence on East Berry street. A bountiful supper was spread, and numerous bottles of Goulet washed down the throats of the victorious nine. Jones, the pitcher, came in for a great deal of adulation.

Yesterday, Judge O'Rourke signed the papers for the commitment to the reform school of a fifteen year old girl, whose parents live in the Sixth ward. The girl has been running about the streets with depraved males and is rapidly going to the devil. We regret her fate, but she has no one to blame but herself.

Rumors are current of probable changes in the management of the Wabash railway. It is said by one set of gossipers that Jay Gould will relinquish the presidency of the Wabash, and that Captain R. S. Hayes will be elected in his place.

Rev. W. H. McFarland entertained several city clergymen at dinner yesterday at the Aveline. They were invited to meet the Rev. Sylvester F. Scovel, D. D., a distinguished Presbyterian divine, of Pittsburg, who was in the city en route to Rome City.

Spencer Democrat: "Hon. Allen Zollars, of Fort Wayne, will be before the state convention as candidate for judge of the supreme court in place of Judge Worden, who will not be a candidate. Mr. Zollars is a fine gentleman, a staunch democrat, well qualified and entirely worthy."

Manager Aronson, of the Golden Eagle baseball club, entertained the club last night at his residence on East Berry street. A bountiful supper was spread, and numerous bottles of Goulet washed down the throats of the victorious nine. Jones, the pitcher, came in for a great deal of adulation.

Yesterday, Judge O'Rourke signed the papers for the commitment to the reform school of a fifteen year old girl, whose parents live in the Sixth ward. The girl has been running about the streets with depraved males and is rapidly going to the devil. We regret her fate, but she has no one to blame but herself.
